

iPad Charging Important Notice

Message from the Technology Department

We have had numerous iPad incidents where the iPad battery is not holding a charge or will not charge at all. It is very important that you use only the district issued Apple charging cable and block to charge your iPad. Non-Apple chargers may have different specifications which lead to either overpowering or underpowering the device. Using these cables can and have resulted in logic board issues, at times rendering the iPads unrepairable.

12/20/2017